(Maccabaeus)

Children's Time

Hymn "Alleluia, Praise to God"

1. Alleluia, praise to God.
Alleluia, praise to God.
Praises, high praises, we bring you, O God.
Alleluia, praise to God.
2. Songs of joy sing out to God.
Songs of joy sing out to God.
Dancing and singing, we praise you, O God.
Songs of joy sing out to God.

3. Beat the drums, sing out to God.
Beat the drums, sing out to God.
Praises, high praises, we bring you, O God.
Beat the drums, sing out to God.

(Children leave for Sunday School)

Collect for the Day: O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All sit for the ...

First Reading: Acts 3:12-19 <sup>12</sup>When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. <sup>14</sup>But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, <sup>15</sup>and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. <sup>17</sup>"And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. <sup>18</sup>In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. <sup>19</sup>Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out,

At the conclusion of the passage, the reader says,

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God.

(A moment of silence is taken to reflect on God's Word)

Hymn No. 25 (paraphrase of Psalm 4)

"Glory to Thee, My God, This Night"

(Tallis's Canon)

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-7 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. <sup>3</sup>And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. <sup>4</sup>Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup>You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. <sup>6</sup>No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. <sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

From the ACW Newsletter March, 2009:

Communion and the risk of infection. The risk of infection related to participating in public worship and receiving Communion is related to many factors. Some individuals may have low resistance to infection, or a communicable illness, or many viruses or bacteria on their hands. In one parish the clergy regularly use alcohol hand cleanser kept on the credence table between "passing the peace" and the prayer of consecration. In this same church, many of the lay people use the cleanser kept on tables near the front pews before receiving communion.

Our Bishop Derek Hoskin has said, "As a church we can show our care for others by using a hand disinfectant before handling the the bread and wine when setting the Table for Holy Communion. I commend those parishes that make such disinfectant available to the communicants as well as to the Eucharistic ministers. We can also monitor our own state of health and refrain from receiving in both kinds (i.e. receive only the bread) if we feel that we have some sort of flue or cold, etc. that might be contagious.

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

From Sally Goddard: As some of you may know, last summer Tim and I returned to Papua New Guinea after an absence of 25 years to begin the Captain Nichola Goddard Light Up Papua New Guinea project. We had a remarkable time and were fortunate that Dianne Bos, a Calgary-based photographer, Val Fortney, a journalist with the Calgary Herald, and Grady Semmens (from the University of Calgary), travelled with us and recorded the event.

This project was made possible by people participating in the Gala Fundraiser last year. Of course, costs have risen; villages are no more accessible now than they were 25 years ago. We would like the opportunity to talk to you about the trip and the adventures we had as well as look at future possibilities.

We can't possibly duplicate the success of last year so we have planned a different kind of fundraiser. I won free tickets in a contest with Air Canada to fly anywhere in Canada from Charlottetown. This gets us to Calgary at no cost. The fundraising committee have compiled photos and videos of the team that came with us and are presenting them at this event, in various forms of print and on screen. They will even be presenting our photos from 25 years ago and you can compare the images and how things have changed, or not changed so much. There will be a raffle of various small items, some from PNG and some from around Calgary and Tim and I will try and connect with many of you. All this and finger food for $30.

The 2009 fundraiser for the Captain Nichola Goddard Light Up Papua New Guinea project will take place at the Cantos Music Foundation in the Music Room on the main floor at 134 11th Avenue SE from 12.00 noon until 4.00 p.m., on a 'come and go' basis. The event will run on Saturday May 2, 2009. This is a symbolic day, as it would have been Nichola's 29th birthday. We would love to see you there.

To purchase tickets please call 403-266-5004 or they can be purchased online at www.lutw.org. Further information is available on the bulletin board in the link.
