First Lesson: Jeremiah 31:31-34 <sup>31</sup> The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>32</sup> It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt-- a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. <sup>33</sup> But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>34</sup> No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

People: Thanks be to God.

(silence, we take a short moment to reflect on God's Word)

Te Deum p. 7

Second Lesson: Hebrews 5:5-10 <sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; <sup>6</sup> as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." <sup>7</sup> In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. <sup>8</sup> Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; <sup>9</sup> and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, <sup>10</sup> having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Choir Anthem: "A Lenten Hymn" Lau

Gospel Lesson: John 12:20-33 <sup>20</sup> Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. <sup>21</sup> They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup> Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup> Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup> Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour. <sup>27</sup> "Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say-- 'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." <sup>29</sup> The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." <sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. <sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. <sup>32</sup> And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." <sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

The Sunday School Program is making Easter Baskets for shut-ins this year. Over Lent, we will be collecting small toiletries (hotel-sized ones work great!) to put in the baskets. If you would like to contribute, there will be a box for donations at the back of the church. We were blessed with an abundance of Easter straw last year, so we are not in any need of Easter straw at this time.

Soul Food: Worship in a New Key. - St. Stephen's Anglican Church is presenting an alternative to Sunday morning worship. It is intended for those looking for a less formal way of gathering. Readings are drawn from a wide variety of sources. Prayers and rituals are offered without books. And the music, featuring professional Calgary musicians, will consist of the best from contemporary Blues, Folk and World Music traditions. Join us for our first service at St. Stephen's Anglican Church on Sunday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. Bring a neighbour. St. Stephen's is located at 1121-14th Avenue S.W. For more information call (403) 244-4879.
