Collect for the Day: O God, you have assured the human family of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in him, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All sit for the ...

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-9 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup>I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. <sup>3</sup>I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." <sup>4</sup>So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, <sup>6</sup>Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. <sup>7</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

At the conclusion of the passage, the reader says,

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God. (A moment of silence is taken to reflect on God's Word)

Psalm 33 (said responsively by the verse) Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous. Praise befits the upright. <sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings. <sup>3</sup>Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts. <sup>4</sup>For the word of the LORD is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness. <sup>5</sup>He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and all their host by the breath of his mouth. <sup>7</sup>He gathered the waters of the sea as in a bottle; he put the deeps in storehouses. <sup>8</sup>Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. <sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm. <sup>10</sup>The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples. <sup>11</sup>The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. <sup>12</sup>Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage.

Second Reading: Romans 4:13-25 <sup>13</sup>For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. <sup>15</sup>For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. <sup>16</sup>For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, <sup>17</sup>as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations")-- in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. <sup>18</sup>Hoping against hope, he believed that

Our annual bazaar is scheduled for November 1. We would be glad to receive donations in the following categories: jewellery, books, CD's and DVD's; handicrafts, baking and preserves, collectibles, Christmas items, and miscellaneous goods. Because we have limited storage at the church, we would appreciate your donations after September 1. Please bring them to the library; we ask that all donations be clearly labelled "Bazaar."

Thank you.

Archives – We wish to add to the archival information of St. Barnabas. We have 2 brass plaques in the church which list the names of parishioners and/or their family members who sacrificed their lives in World War 1 and II. If you have any information about any of the people whose names are listed on the plaques, please contact Shelagh Gregory at 255-7264

Please continue to collect and donate used stamps for the Canadian Bible Society. There are containers in the narthex. The used stamps are sold by the pound to stamp collectors. The used stamp project for this year is in Jordan where the Canadian Bible Society will equip university students with Bibles, study tools and related materials.

Between 50 and 100 people come to coffee every Sunday. We need help with this. We need at least one couple/two people to help every Sunday. There will be a sign up sheet at coffee. The more people who volunteer, the easier it is for everyone. If you cannot volunteer, please sign up for baking or cookies. If you have time on Sunday morning, it would be appreciated if you would stay and help clean up.
