Processional Hymn No. 276

“For All the Saints”

(Sine Nomine)

CHILDREN’S TIME:

The Collect of the Day: Almighty God, whose people are knit together in one holy Church, the mystical Body of your Son, grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Choir Anthem: “It Is Well with My Soul” Arranged L. Fetteke

1st Reading: Isaiah 25:6-9

Anne Tapp

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. <sup>7</sup> And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; <sup>8</sup> he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup> It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Psalm 24 Pg 357 (chanted)

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:1-6a

Terri Collyer

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down

out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup> And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; <sup>4</sup> he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." <sup>5</sup> And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." <sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end

Gradual Hymn No. 278

“Jerusalem the Golden”

(Ewing)

Gospel: John 11:32-44 <sup>32</sup> When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." <sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. <sup>34</sup> He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." <sup>35</sup> Jesus began to weep. <sup>36</sup> So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" <sup>37</sup> But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" <sup>38</sup> Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." <sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" <sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. <sup>42</sup> I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." <sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" <sup>44</sup> The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

"Take My Life, and Let It Be" (Mozart)

The Prayers of the People:

Duet: "Father in Heaven, Guide These Your Servants"

Sung by: Cathy Noullett and Dianne Quinton (Handel/Kosa)

Intercession: In every age you have raised up holy men and women to reflect the light of Christ and to teach us the ways of holiness.

We thank you for those who have been teachers in the school of Christ: give understanding to those who study the faith the Church has handed on, and clarity to those who communicate the gospel in a changing world.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those who have been shepherds of your people: give a pastoral heart to deacons, priests and bishops, and the needful gifts to all your people in their ministry.

In our Diocese we pray for: The Highwood Parish; St. Benedict, High River, St. Thomas, Dinton, St. Aidan, Pekosky, The Rev. Giovanni Vincenzo, and The Gerry Skeet

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those who have been Christian rulers in the world, and for those who carried the good news to lands where it had not been before: give wisdom to all who have power and influence among the nations, and establish God's sovereignty among people of every race.

We pray for our companion Diocese of the Windward Isles: St. Patrick with St. Mary & St. Francis, The Rev. Canon Christian Glasgow and The Rev. Edward Mark

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those who have struggled for the poor and the powerless: give strength to all who see Christ in the oppressed and uphold them as they work for justice and release.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those whom you have called to live in community: establish mutual love among those drawn into fellowship in your service, and bless with Christ's presence all the communities to which our lives relate.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those who have lived out their vocation in family life: give your grace to all who nurture children and all who care for the aged, and enfold in your love all your sons and daughters.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you for those who have brought wholeness through the medicine of the gospel: give skill to all who minister healing and reconciliation in your name, and comfort all who cry out to you from any sort of distress:

Doris Ford, The Rev. Mervin Wolfleg, The Rev. Canon John Flagler, The Rev. Roger Kett, The Rev. Dr. Norman Knowles, Chyrine (COR-REEN) Thompson, Donald Sawatsky, Elizabeth Hardcastle, Elizabeth Finlayson, Margaret Baird, Willy, Darrell, Jim Watts, Eddie & Joan Norris, John Mallinson, Larry Hewitt, Russell des Cognets, Jean Spencer, Cathy King, Reta Lee, Claire Flynn, Gwen Coupland, Karen K., Cathie Morris, Linda Stevenson, Karen Norton, Win Saunders, Lisa Allison, Kay Robertson, Danping Lee, Howard Patterson, Carl & Donna McAllister, Fay Milne, Neil McKenzie, Edith Martel, The Rev. Robert Greene, Michele Mallinson, Esther Burgess, Lyn Innes, Jean Norton, Don Freckelton, Sally, Daniel Eros, Sam Quinton, Janet Beattie, Purdy Mackenzie, Michael Penelhum

Lord, graciously hear us

We thank you today for . . . (names will be read out)

Keep in one communion and fellowship all those for whom Christ died.

Lord, hear us

Lord, graciously hear us

Merciful Father,

Accept these prayers for the sake of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Music: "Music cleanses the understanding; inspires it, and lifts it into a realm which it would not reach if it were left to itself."

Henry Ward Beecher

"Music is the universal language of mankind." *Henry Wadsworth
Longfellow, Outre-Mer*

Music has been part of the human experience from the earliest eras. "Evidence suggests that dance, utterance, and song preceded speech, which means that music is humanity's original language."

Don Campbell Music can suspend time, move us to tears, get us out of bed, give us pause to reflect, change our mood, heal infirmities, send our bodies dancing, and propel us to the transcendent.

Generations are defined by music. Strangers, communities and families are drawn together through its power. "Music can change the world because it can change people." Bono
