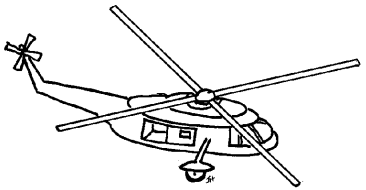
Attention! There's something coming down:

EVERY HELICOPTER IS HIT.



Although Jesus speaks in today's Gospel about something coming down from above this is certainly not what he says. But if you rearrange the letters, it makes much more sense and is connected with what we celebrate today:

__ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __

__ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ .

Today's lessons:

Acts 2:1-21	On the fiftieth day after Easter the gathered disciples receive the Holy Spirit, just like Jesus had promised at his Ascension.
Psalm 104:24-34, 35b	This psalm celebrates the creative power of God's Spirit and the diversity of the creation.
1 Corinthians 12:3b-13	The apostle Paul, writing to the very diverse church in Corinth, explains that the Holy Spirit gives different gifts to different people; one is not better than the other, because they all come from the same Spirit and are meant to be used for the community.
John 20:19-23	In John's Gospel, the disciples receive the Holy Spirit from the Risen Christ on the evening of Easter Day. With the Holy Spirit Jesus gives them the power to forgive or retain sins.

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS COMING !

...and out of the chaos and noise of the crowd of pilgrims in Jerusalem perfectly discernible words start to emerge.
Can you discern the words in this chaos of letters?
