All the Heavenly Host

According to Revelation 7, if you want to go to heaven, you'd better be prepared for some crowding and a lot of ethnic and cultural diversity.

Seems to be a big mix-up, almost like this word search here.

Today's lessons:

Revelation 7:9-17	A vision of God among all the heavenly host: people from all nations, angels, and other heavenly creatures sing praises to God and the Lamb (Jesus Christ).
Psalm 34:1-10, 22	The saints of Lord don't need to fear (= be afraid of) anything as long as they fear (= feel awe toward) God.
1 John 3:1-3	God has made us his children. And that means that we become more and more like him and unlike the world around us.
Matthew 5:1-12	Jesus begins his 'Sermon on the Mount' by declaring certain groups of people to be blessed by God, although we would probably rather feel sorry for them or declare them to be nuts. Proves that to be blessed and to be happy is not necessarily the same...
